Website Visitors

Like most website operators, Rochester Family YMCA collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. Rochester Family YMCA's purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how Rochester Family YMCA's visitors use its website. From time to time, Rochester Family YMCA may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website.

Rochester Family YMCA also collects potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses for logged in users and for users leaving comments on Rochester Family YMCA.com blogs. Rochester Family YMCA only discloses logged in user and commenter IP addresses under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information as described below, except that blog commenter IP addresses and email addresses are visible and disclosed to the administrators of the blog where the comment was left.

Gathering of Personally-Identifying Information

Certain visitors to Rochester Family YMCA's websites choose to interact with Rochester Family YMCA in ways that require Rochester Family YMCA to gather personally-identifying information. The amount and type of information that Rochester Family YMCA gathers depends on the nature of the interaction. Rochester Family YMCA does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below. And visitors can always refuse to supply personally-identifying information, with the caveat that it may prevent them from engaging in certain website-related activities.

Aggregated Statistics

Rochester Family YMCA may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to its websites. Rochester Family YMCA may display this information publicly or provide it to others. However, Rochester Family YMCA does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below.

Protection of Certain Personally-Identifying Information

Rochester Family YMCA discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only to those of its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations that (i) need to know that information in order to process it on Rochester Family YMCA's behalf or to provide services available at Rochester Family YMCA's websites, and (ii) that have agreed not to disclose it to others. Some of those employees, contractors and affiliated organizations may be located outside of your home country; by using Rochester Family YMCA websites, you consent to the transfer of such information to them. Rochester Family YMCA will not rent or sell potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information to anyone. Other than to its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations, as described above, Rochester Family YMCA discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only in response to a subpoena, court order or other governmental request, or when Rochester Family YMCA believes in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the property or rights of Rochester Family YMCA, third parties or the public at large. If you are a registered user of an Rochester Family YMCA website and have supplied your email address, Rochester Family YMCA may occasionally send you an email to tell you about new features, solicit your feedback, or just keep you up to date with what's going on with Rochester Family YMCA and our products. We primarily use our various product blogs to communicate this type of information, so we expect to keep this type of email to a minimum. If you send us a request (for example via a support email or via one of our feedback mechanisms), we reserve the right to publish it in order to help us clarify or respond to your request or to help us support other users. Rochester Family YMCA takes all measures reasonably necessary to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information.

Cookies

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. Rochester Family YMCA uses cookies to help Rochester Family YMCA identify and track visitors, their usage of Rochester Family YMCA's website, and their website access preferences. Rochester Family YMCA visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using Rochester Family YMCA's websites, with the drawback that certain features of Rochester Family YMCA's websites may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

Business Transfers

If Rochester Family YMCA, or substantially all of its assets, were acquired, or in the unlikely event that Rochester Family YMCA goes out of business or enters bankruptcy, user information would be one of the assets that is transferred or acquired by a third party. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur, and that any acquirer of Rochester Family YMCA may continue to use your personal information as set forth in this policy.

Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, Rochester Family YMCA may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and in Rochester Family YMCA's sole discretion. Rochester Family YMCA encourages visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to its Privacy Policy. Your continued use of this site after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
